Dutch Claim U. N. Cease-Fire Order Failed to Check Warfare in Indonesia

TROOPS NEEDED TO BRING PEACE, DELEGATE SAYS

Security Council Told
Republican Forces
Cause More Bloodshed

LAKE SUCCESS, Aug. 22 (AP)—The Netherlands told the Security Council today that the United Nations cease-fire order had only increased bloodshed in Indonesia.

The Dutch then told the council that it must either "send troops" or let The Netherlands alone take measures to restore order.

The announcement that both sides would comply with the council's cease-fire call as of midnight Aug. 4 had been hailed as the council's greatest triumph to date in its peace-keeping efforts.

In a new appeal for the council to take its hands off the Indonesian question, Dr. Eelco N. van Kieffens, Netherlands representative, declared:

"If you really want the fighting to stop, you must either send troops or allow us to bring about, together with freedom, that settlement."

NLRB Stresses Speed to Settle Labor Disputes

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 (P)—The National Labor Relations board tonight announced a set of "fast and fair" rules for settling jurisdictional disputes between unions and handling other cases under the Taft-Hartley act. The emphasis is on speed.

The new law went fully into effect today, 60 days after its enactment, and unions and employers are urged to enter a period of new and confusing problems.

The Labor department reported about 125,000 workers were involved in 200 strikes yesterday before the law became effective.

Officials said there was a last-minute rush to settle disputes before the midnight deadline on the Taft-Hartley act, which restricts unions in what they can do and what sort of contracts they can get from employers.

Several settlements were reached literally only a few minutes before midnight, and in a few cases, representatives of labor and management used the legislative maneuver of "stopping the clock" until agreements were reached.

Union leaders were still noncommittal on their long-range plans.

The CIO said its nine vice presidents will meet again with President Philip Murray on Sept. 4. The AFL's 13 vice presidents will meet Sept. 8 in Chicago with President William Green. Clearer union policies should emerge from those meetings.

A few cases under the new law began trickling into the NLRB field offices. The pattern probably won't be clear for several days at least.

Robert N. Denham, NLRB general counsel, told a reporter, "we're open for business." He said he is "satisfied" with the NLRB staff and setup, but "nobody has yet nailed up a sign saying 'success.'" He refused to make any predictions.

Gunmen Get $40,000 In Canada Bank Holdup

WINDSOR, Ont., Aug. 22 (P)—Two robbers, one brandishing a sub-machine gun and the other a pistol, looted the Royal Bank of Canada of an estimated $40,000 today and escaped.

The holdup, in which customers and bank employees were lined up against the wall, took place shortly before the bank's closing hour. It was Windsor's first bank holdup in years.

City, provincial and Canadian mounted police threw up road blocks around the city almost immediately in an effort to forestall the robbers' flight from Windsor.

Military Supplies Bound for Greece

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 (P)—The State department said today that more than 50,000 tons of "urgent military supplies" are en route from the United States to Greece as a part of the Greek aid program.

It issued an announcement saying that 12 Army transporters sailed before mid-August laden with trucks, food and other supplies aggregating more than 20,000 tons.

MAYOR CHARGES CO-OP SYSTEM 'RUINING' CITY

Competitive Enterprise Asked for Government

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 (P)—Mayor George Bauer of government-owned Greenbelt, Md., told a congressional committee today the town's business is in the hands of a "Co-op" monopoly, and recommended the introduction of "free, competitive private enterprise."

The mayor made his statement after the Maryland economic council asked the committee to solve "the threat to small business stemming from the rapidly developing unfair and un-American competition of the Co-ops."

Bauer said he believes co-operatives are good, but that he objects to the exclusion of competitive private business from the Government-built community of 1100 population. Without competition, the Co-op has been subject to complaints of inefficiency and high prices, he said.

Private business is prevented from operating there, Bauer testified, through a long-term Government contract.

4400 Jew Refugees Sail for Germany; Appeal for U. S. Aid

PORT DE BOUC, France, Aug. 22 (P)—The 4400 Jews of the Exodus, blocked in their efforts to settle in Palestine, ignored a British ultimatum and sailed tonight on three British "cage" ships for Germany, many of them vowing they would not land unless forced.

None of the Jews got off the ships in response to the British government's demand that they disembark in France or be taken to Hamburg, and promptly at 6 p. m. (1 p. m. Pottstown time), the British set deadline, the transports began lifting their anchors and set sail with an escort of three destroyers and a cruiser.

An 11th hour appeal for intervention by President Truman was cabled to Washington on behalf of the Jews about the time they sailed.

The message, brought ashore and dispatched by French police aid paid for by one of the Jewish relief organizations, said:

"We Jewish survivors of Europe's holocaust are appealing to you for aid."

T. Dorsey's One-Two Attack Floors Goodman in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 22 (P)—Trombonist Tommy Dorsey today floored Benny Goodman, the clarinet king, in unrehearsed fistfights at a recording session, don't-quotem press agents reported tonight.

Dorsey, as fast with his fists as he is with the shiphorn, knocked Goodman down with a one-two to the chin following hot words over some ad lib notes the clarinetist reportedly interpolated and which caused a remark.

The recording, at the Samuel Goldwyn studios, was for the sound track of a picture featuring the two musicians, with trumpeter Louis Armstrong, saxophonist Charlie Barnet, and vibraphonist Lionel Hampton.

Goodman, apparently was not seriously hurt, observers said, and got up and left under his own power.

Dorsey figured three years ago in an altercation with actor Jon Hall.

U. S. Holds Koreans For Participation in Anti-American Plot

SEOUL, Korea, Aug. 22 (AP)—Prompted by an extraordinary Soviet complaint, U. S. authorities announced today the arrest of many Koreans accused of "widespread activity of a revolutionary nature."

Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, commander of the American-occupied southern half of Korea, made the announcement and pointed cautiously to a tie-up between the accused plotters and "The North." But he specifically declined to attribute it to Russian inspiration. The Russians occupy Northern Korea.

A Soviet official statement to the press brought the situation to light this afternoon and led one high American official to remark that the Russians were "attempting to interfere in the conduct of the government of Southern Korea."

The charges, counter-charges and disclosures in a series of statements and press conferences, were laid against a background of sharp American-Soviet tension over this divided country.

Three American enlisted men who stepped over the line into the Russian zone on Aug. 1 still are before them, the committee members allocated a portion of the borough to each of the trucks for complete coverage today. They urged everyone with bottles to donate to leave them in front of their homes today.

Because interest in the bottle collection has spread not only through Pottstown but to out-lying country areas, as evidenced by the number of calls to Perkins' office, two supplementary collection areas were set up at last night's meeting. Col. Gen. Terenty P. Shchikov, chief of the Russian delegation in unification negotiations, issued his press statement this afternoon. He said "mass arrest" of leftists in Southern Korea in the past ten days was apparently aimed at "disrupting the work of the joint commission." He demanded "immediate measures for restoration of normal conditions."

In releasing the statement, he said it was identical with a protest he had made at a commission meeting on Aug. 20 (but which was not made public at that time).

General Hodge then called a press conference and disclosed the "revolutionary" activity. Hodge said about 100 ring-leaders had been arrested in Seoul and an unknown number of others in the provinces on charges of rioting, attacking police boxes and interfering with the government's rice-collection program.

Hodge gave no details except to say that Korean police had made the arrests, and that the "plot" was first discovered early in August among leftist employees of the South Korean radio system.

Health Officials Inspect Restaurants

Four Pottstown restaurants were rechecked by the State department of health in a surprise spot check yesterday and were found to be in average condition, Benjamin C. Steele, borough health officer, announced.

The tests were conducted by Theodore O. Reichel and Chester Quikel, of the Harrisburg office, who were accompanied by Steele and Clarence Foreman, of Boyertown, State sanitarian for upper Montgomery county.

Reichel and Quikel came to Pottstown from Norristown where they are operating from a mobile unit conducting tests throughout southeastern Pennsylvania.

Full reports on yesterday's spot checks will be made after laboratory tests are made in the mobile unit.

U. S.-English Dollar Talks Are Recessed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 (P)—High level Anglo-American conferences on Britain's economic crisis recessed suddenly late today, apparently without a decision on Britain's plea for a free hand to trade where she wills but with an agreement to keep "technical" discussions going.

The head men will resume their deliberations later. Meanwhile, Sir Wilfrid Eady, Cameron Cobbold, and Sir Gordon Monro, of the British delegation to the conference, planned to return this weekend to London to report progress of the conference and to discuss "policy requirements." No detail on those requirements was disclosed. Earlier Sir Wilfrid expressed satisfaction over the progress made.

This Truck Finished Second Best

Optimist Club Prepared For Bottle Drive Today

The Optimist club bottle collection campaign will get under way at 9 o'clock this morning when eight trucks start to cover every street in the borough to pick up bottles, jars and crockery.

Final plans for the drive were made at 7:30 o'clock last night when members of the committee in charge of the campaign met in the office of D. R. Perkins in the Security Trust building.

With maps of the borough before them, the committee members allocated a portion of the borough to each of the trucks for complete coverage today. They urged everyone with bottles to donate to leave them in front of their homes today.

Poor Average Marks Efforts Of St. Swithin

An epidemic of sweat broke out on "Pottstonians" forehead again yesterday with the advent of 83 degree temperatures combined with a humidity reading of 74 percent. At the same time, the absence of rain kept Old St. Swithin's precipitation record down to a poor batting average. His 40 days are up today, and since July 15, he succeeded in bringing the "gentle rains from heaven" on only 17 days.

Old Sol popped through a hazy atmosphere in the afternoon long enough to burn up Friday shoppers on the main drag, but still it wasn't quite so bad as the boiling days of not so long ago.

The thermometer held to 69 from 4 to 9 a. m. yesterday morning, then began a gradual increase to the 80s by 3 in the afternoon. The mercury didn't start back down until the evening's early hours.

Both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts were experiencing fairly comfortable weather yesterday while the central portion of the country continued to sweeter under high temperatures with no relief in sight, according to Weatherman Charles S. Ling, Reading.

The comparative comfort of the local weather was attributed to a high-pressure area centered over Ontario, Canada. It is this pressure area which is keeping temperatures down locally, said Ling, and temperatures are not expected to rise noticeably at least until the high area moves.

Today and tomorrow is forecast to be generally fair and somewhat warmer.

Youth Hurt in Swimming Pool Remains in Serious Condition

David Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson, 63 Edgewood street, who for almost two months has been fighting for his life in the Pottstown hospital, is still in a "very serious" condition, his physician, Dr. T. E. Willis, said yesterday.

Wilson, who was injured severely on June 30, when he dove into 11 inches of water at the Kirkwood pool on Route 100 eight miles south of Pottstown, had been comatose in an iron lung for six weeks after his accident.

Suffering from a broken neck, his body was paralyzed and the huge respirator was required to keep him alive.

During the time he spent in the lung, Wilson practiced breathing exercises and was able to move his arms slightly by flexing his shoulder muscles.

Yesterday a week ago, sufficient-ly recovered to breathe without aid, the youth was taken from the iron lung. Complications set in, however, when he was seized with attacks that made breathing difficult.

Wilson, according to his doctor, apparently has developed a fear of the attacks which has proved a hindrance to his recovery. He has lost sleep through fear that he may not recover if an attack should come on when he was not awake.

Doctors at the hospital keep him under observation during the attacks to prevent the twisting of his body which may aggravate his neck injury. They regard this possibility as the greatest danger.

Wilson's father has been at his son's bedside constantly for the past few days to lend him confidence, while the iron lung is kept in readiness just outside his room at the hospital, in the event that he may need it in an emergency.

BUS LINE STAYS IDLE AS JUDGE DELAYS HEARING

Mrs. Clemmer, Creditors Fail to Reach Accord in Disposal of Property

While Birdsboro residents working in Pottstown continued to be without bus service, the hearing on the application of Mrs. Dorothy E. Clemmer, wife of Leo D. Clemmer, Douglassville bus operator, to be appointed receiver of her missing husband's property was continued until Thursday morning.

The hearing on the bill of equity was scheduled to be heard before Judge Forrest R. Shanahan in the Berks county courthouse in Reading at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

K. Joseph Merkel, of Reading, one of Mrs. Clemmer's attorneys, said yesterday that the hearing was continued until Thursday morning, at the same time, when Clemmer's creditors and Mrs. Clemmer were unable to reach a settlement. Merkel stated that both parties want to reach a solution before presenting the case to the court.

Clemmer has been missing from his home since July 27, and his wife has had no word from him since Aug. 14, when she received a letter from Atlantic City in which Clemmer announced his intentions of going to Florida.

In the bill filed by Mrs. Clemmer on August 13 through her attorneys, Merkel and William Z. Shanahan, she named her husband as the defendant and stated that he was in debt to various creditors who threatened to seize some of the buses. She asked the court for an injunction to restrain them from interfering with the property and its assets.

Since then, eight buses have been repossessed by finance companies to whom Clemmer owed money and bus service to Birdsboro from Pottstown has ceased.

2 Women Hurt; Valve Causes Kitchen Blast

Two women yesterday were treated for second degree burns of the face, neck, and arms incurred Thursday night when a pressure cooker in which they were making applesauce exploded when they removed the lid. They attributed the explosion to a defective safety valve on the cooker.

The women, Mrs. E. A. Cobb, and her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Mowbray, both of Pottstown RD 4, were making the applesauce in the kitchen of their home after cooking the food for the required amount of time, they let the cooker cool until the pressure gauge indicated that it was safe to open the lid.

Suddenly unhooking, the cover was blown through the air by the steam imprisoned in the cooker, narrowly missing Mrs. Mowbray's head. The sudden release of the steam blew hot applesauce over both women, burning them severely.

The mixture also was blown to the ceiling and shelves of the kitchen and into the next room by the violence of the explosion.

Both Mrs. Mowbray and Mrs. Cobb covered burns with salve, but yesterday Mrs. Cobb was confined to her bed. Mrs. Mowbray said her mother delayed the application of the salve until after she had washed the applesauce away and consequently was more severely blistered.

Mrs. Mowbray believed the valve on the pot was not functioning properly, although it was possible that the cooker may have been filled too much.

Fascism Survey Is Completed; Strong Signs Reported in U. S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 (AP)—A congressional survey today sized up Fascism abroad as a doctrine "couched in violence" with a program based on "aggressive prejudice," and Rep. Patman (D-Tex.) said there are "strong symptoms" of it in the United States.

The study, entitled "Fascism in action," was authorized by the House after months of controversy and was made by the legislative reference service of the Library of Congress.

Except for a foreword by Patman, who requested the survey, the bulky report deals entirely with the history and operation of Fascism in other countries, mainly Germany and Italy. Its purpose is to call the attention of Americans to what happened abroad and alert them to possible danger at home.

The document notes that Fascist groups try to accomplish their ends within the law but if that proves impossible "they simulate legality for their actions."

"Thus the German constitution may have been violated by Hitler when he combined the two offices of chancellor and president," the study continues, "but that same constitution gave the president powers to suspend the laws and constitute in times of emergency and thus open the door of legality to most of Hitler's acts."

"That was also true of Mussolini. He acquired control seemingly within the framework of the Italian constitution."

An incongruous touch to the three-day observance of the anniversary of A-bomb day in Hiroshima is added by these Jap children and dancers. Dressed in colorful costumes, some of the paraders looked as though they were taking part in a celebration instead of solemn pleas for peace among the nations of the world.

International Trade Charter Is Adopted at Geneva Meet

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 22 (AP)—The delegates of 17 nations representing 63 percent of world commerce adopted unanimously today a draft charter for a proposed International Trade organization for the broad purpose of reducing trade barriers.

The 4000-word document hammered out in seven months of negotiations in London, New York and Geneva, is intended as a bill of rights for international trade. The draft is to be submitted to a world trade conference of 60 nations at Havana, Cuba, in November when delegates will begin what may be an all-Winter task of adopting a completed charter for submission to the member governments for ratification.

Objectives of the charter completed today by the 17 members of a preparatory committee are listed broadly as the "employment and trade, the fostering of industrial and economic development and reconstruction, equal access of all countries to markets, and the reduction of tariff preferences and trade embargoes."

Dr. H. C. Coombs, of Australia, speaking on the adoption of the charter, called it a "skeleton" and said "it remains for the governments of the world to put flesh upon its bones and breath in its nostrils."

L. D. Wilgress, Canadian negotiator, said the charter "represents a compromise between the conflicting views and diverse interests of the countries which have been members of the preparatory committee."

Originally projected by the United States government, the ITO charter drafts a comprehensive system of agricultural products of internal taxes on imported products in favor of domestic products and anti-dumping duties and boycotts. A member may subsidize exports, however to offset a subsidy of non-members on the same product.

Under the charter all members agree to extend to one another equal treatment in trade, long espoused by the United States as the most-favored-nation policy.

Therefore, we must tie to those Communists who may be in this country and Canada, the acts of those who have a government functioning under Communist principles."

The resolution was offered at the last minute to head off the efforts of Leland Shores of St. Louis, an independent, to get such a declaration of policy from the convention before adjournment.

Randolph earlier told the convention that to write into the union's laws a proviso that a Communist could not be a candidate for office would "lead to dictatorship."

Assurances could be disqualified from running by members who must have to label their opponents as "Communists," Randolph and his committee on laws pointed out.

Tucker said it was not aimed at any officers of the ITO, and expressed the opinion that there were not Communists in the union. "If there are I've never met them," Tucker said.

Several delegates speaking against the Communist proposition offered by Tucker called for a soul to meet "this most critical period in our history."

They referred to the convention's decision yesterday to make no more new contacts with employers in an effort to avert action arising out of the contract under the Fair Laborer Labor act. Instead, the ITO will post "conditions of employment" to be accepted by employers. Principal stumbling block is the closed shop arrangement which the ITO has enjoyed in most printing shops and newspaper composing rooms where union printers are used.

BAD TREATMENT OF YUGOSLAVIA DENIED BY U. S.

Sacrifices During War Justify American Aid, Tito's Envoy Explains

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 (AP)—The United States returned a sharp denial today to a complaint that Yugoslavia's ambassador that this country has treated Marshall Tito's Communist regime unfairly.

In another development in the troubled relations with the Balkan countries in the Soviet sphere, this government turned to a direct appeal to Bulgaria in a new effort to save the life of Nikola Petkov, doomed Bulgarian opposition leader.

The Yugoslav envoy, Sava N. Kosanovic, issued a statement of "facts" to explain a feeling he reported in Yugoslavia that "certain American official circles" are disinclined to supply food and other aid to his country.

He acknowledged that the United States paid some 72 percent of more than $400,000,000 in UNRRA relief supplied Yugoslavia. But, referring to Yugoslavia's sacrifices for the allied cause, he added that "it is very difficult to try to express the value of blood and lives in money."

A State department spokesman responded with the reminder that the United States, too, had made war-time sacrifices in blood, while carrying the burden of billions supplied in lend-lease.

Kosanovic joined the continuing American-Yugoslav controversy after the State department had replied point by point to charges made earlier this month by Tito. These included an assertion that the United States was trying to set up some kind of "economic blockade" against his country.

The ambassador, in a statement telegraphed from Asheville, N. C., where he is on vacation, said that (1) the United States for more than 18 months refused to release some 130 seized Yugoslav-owned Danube ships and barges, (2) turned down pleas for grain, and (3) for six years has frozen some $50,000,000 of Yugoslav gold reserves in this country.

Longshoremen Strike Causes Cancellation Of America Sailing

NEW YORK, Aug. 22 (AP)—Their tempers ranging from infuriated to anxious to bored, hundreds of Europe-bound travelers today milled about the liner America and made a luggage-strewn bedlam out of the pier beside her.

Finally told that because of the AFL longshoremen's strike, they could not sail on the nation's biggest passenger ship—its twice postponed sailing having been called off altogether—most vacillated between trying to get other passage and searching for officials to whom to complain.

On the pier, movie star Carole Landis shoved on one end of a trunk while a chance male acquaintance obviously thought lifting Miss Landis' trunk was the nicest job he ever had.

Then Miss Landis, looking hot and tired but smiling put hands on hips and surveyed about 20 other pieces of luggage.

MOSLEMS LEAD CROWD OF 5000 IN CAIRO RIOTS

Anti-U. N. Demonstrations Continue as Mob Demands British Troop Withdrawal

CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 22 (AP)—Police fought today with a crowd of 5000 wildly shouting that Egypt must be "evacuated by blood" and "down with America" as the U. N. Security council in New York resumed discussion of Egypt's demand for Britain to quit the Nile valley.

The police said one person was killed and 75 injured in Cairo, including 36 demonstrators and 39 policemen, and a policeman smashed in the face with rocks in Alexandria.

Moslem brotherhood leaders, who organized the demonstration, placed the Cairo injured at 100 demonstrators and 22 police.

A crowd at port said at the Mediterranean end of the Suez Canal also shouted "throw the British into the sea." This demonstration passed without violence.

The United States had roused the ire of the Egyptians by supporting a Brazilian proposal in the Security council to refer Egypt's demands back to Britain and Egypt for direct negotiations.

The police, reinforced after an initial clash as thousands of Moslems emerged from regular Friday prayer services at ancient Al Azhar Mosque, reformed and fired when demonstrators surged toward the center of the city. Several rioters were wounded, and a number of policemen injured when the demonstrators pulled them from their horses and beat them with sticks and stones.

A crowd which had assembled in front of King Farouk's palace did not disperse when police fired into the air. Finally, Sheik Massan El Bana, leader of the Moslem brotherhood, who had been slightly wounded in the neck by gunfire, appealed to the demonstrators at the request of the Cairo chief of police to reassemble at the brotherhood headquarters.

As the crowd moved to the new meeting place, cries were heard of "Down with America, the traitor," "Down with Brazil, the traitor," "Egypt defies the Security council," and "Egypt defies the whole world."

These shouts apparently referred to the Brazilian motion in the U. N. to throw the Egyptian case back to direct British-Egyptian negotiations. Leaders of the demonstration shouted by loud speaker, "no resumption of negotiations."

Virginia Hill Fights For Life From Dose Of Mystery Potion

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Aug. 22 (AP)—Virginia Hill hovered between life and the death she feared today, the victim of a mysterious poison which threw her into a comatose condition in the home which she had floodlighted and guarded against gangsters.

A medical bulletin listed her condition as very critical and complicated by pneumonia. It was stated that "the outcome is in doubt at present."

She had been unconscious for approximately 40 hours at 5:30 p. m. when a second medical bulletin listed her condition as unchanged.

Miss Hill had been bluntly warned by Police Chief P. R. Short that he believed her life in danger, and that the gangsters who on June 20 slew her boy friend, Benjamin (Bugs) Siegel, in her Beverly Hills, Calif., home also sought her life.

From best authority it was learned, however, that no pill box or other container remained behind in her luxurious home on Sunset Island No. 1 to give direct evidence that this was the cause of her critical illness.

"We can only assume that it was a matter of too many sleeping pills," this authority stated.

Chief Short said what he termed a "courtesy call" on Miss Hill after she arrived here Aug. 9 from Paris, and told her bluntly that he considered her life to be in extreme danger.

Tells of Escape From Hungary

A naturalized American citizen, Steve Thuranski, Columbus, O., is shown with his wife and two daughters following their arrival in New York from France on the S. S. Marine Jumper. Thuranski, who went to Hungary in August, 1946, to sell farm machinery, told reporters of being thrown into the Budapest political prison—Aug. 1, 1947, and how, handcuffed, he knocked down two guards, and escaped with the aid of his wife and a U. S. Legation attaché.

The typical fish has five kinds of fins. Paired pectoral, paired pelvic, dorsal, anal and tail. The United States has approved 330 morning and 1400 evening dailies.

400 Participate
in Playground Work
At West Pottsgrove

The eight-week season of the West Pottsgrove playground was completed yesterday, and Ray P. Firestone, one of the supervisors, called the first season "highly successful."

"About 400 boys and girls registered and participated in the playground," he said. "I hope the idea will be continued next summer."

Sponsored by the West Pottsgrove Civic association, the township children had their recreation area at the high school building, with weekly swimming trips to Sunnybrook pool one of the best attended features of the season.

"At least 12 boys and girls learned to swim this summer," Firestone declared.

The highlight of the closing season was a scavenger hunt, in which one girls' team and three boys' teams participated, chasing down an assortment of items, including canceled stamps, ten-penny nails, baby animals—dogs and one duckling turned up—and any front page of The Mercury.

Three teams, captained by June Edwards, Walter Stredleck, and Robert Trace tied for first place, while Laris Eddinger's group of scavengers brought up the rear.

An ice-cream party was the reward for all the participants, winners and losers.

Although the daily playground schedule is finished, the Midget Softball team will play the Bethany Center team, Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock at The Hill school grounds for the midget championship, Firestone revealed.

Yesterday's attendance was 60 boys and girls, the largest in two weeks, although earlier in the summer as many as 90 showed up in one day. The average daily attendance for the season was 80.

For the boys, touch football and softball were the most popular sports, while the girls interested in milder pastimes showed a preference for field hockey in the closing weeks.

Mrs. Mary E. Kreibel was the other supervisor who worked at the West Pottsgrove playground for the past eight weeks.

Philadelphia City Hall Shaken by Blast;
Bomb Placed in Lockers Seen Cause

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22 (AP)—A massive wall of Philadelphia's 70-year-old city hall shook today as a violent explosion blasted open a police bomb squad locker, injured several persons and echoed with a thunderous roar through the downtown business district.

Shattering a row of ten steel lockers in a first-floor room of the detective bureau, the explosion sent glass and metal flying in all directions and filled the hall corridors with choking acrid fumes and smoke.

Deputy Chief Engineer William Simler of the fire department, one of the first on the scene, said he detected sulphuric acid.

"It sounded like a heavy Japanese bomb," Simler said of the blast.

"The explosion was probably caused by some evidence in the hands of the city bomb squad which the lockers in which it occurred," declared George Richardson, assistant superintendent of police in charge of the detective bureau.

Richardson reported the cause undetermined but added "I do not think the thing was planted."

Judge Vincent A. Carroll was conferring with Director of Public Safety James H. Malone in an office directly above the blast scene.

"Both of us were after in the air," Judge Carroll said. "I thought the statue of Billy Penn had toppled off the tower."

Flying glass and metal splinters struck several detectives who suffered minor cuts. Another person, in the bureau room seeking a revolver permit, was cut on the face, arms and legs.

Betty Safer, typing at her desk in an adjoining office, said she "heard an awful rumble and the floor beneath my desk began to shake."

"The noise seemed to come from underneath. The walls and partitions shook and before I could even think, my desk was covered with glass and dirt."

In 1945-46, about 4,000,000 pieces were added to the Library of Congress collection.

Hearing for Autoist
Due in Three Weeks

Mark Lederach, Pottstown MD 4, who was accused by police of knocking over a parking meter on High street west of Washington street at 2:45 p. m. Wednesday and fleeing from the scene, will be heard before Justice of the Peace Richard H. Cadmus, of the Seventh ward, in about three weeks, Cadmus said yesterday.

After Lederach hit the standard Patrolman Paul Galloway, crashed him in a police car, overracing him at Sanatoga. Later, Dr. R. Allen Schofield of the Pottstown hospital, pronounced the man intoxicated.

Lederach furnished bail of $500 at 9 p. m. Wednesday, after he had spent several hours in a borough hall cell pending his hearing.

LANCASTER, Aug. 22 (AP)—A collision involving two automobiles and a truck-trailer on the Lincoln highway today killed two persons and injured four others.

The police said Mrs. Harry Garner of nearby Mt. Joy, identified the body of the dead woman, saying she had lived at her home a short time until a few weeks ago.

Police said a Social Security card found in the dead woman's possession gave a Chicago address.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

ONCE a cold really has a hold on you, there does not seem to be much that can be done to get rid of it. The best thing in this case seems to be to forget about treating the cold and take care of yourself by going to bed and staying there until well, avoiding exposure, taking plenty of fluids, and eating a well-balanced diet.

When a cold is just beginning, however, Dr. David Haler, of London, England, believes the "hot" method which

The symptoms of a beginning cold consist of dryness or roughness of the throat, some dryness of the nose, some slight burning in the upper part of the throat, perhaps soreness of the eyes, and

When these symptoms occur, it is suggested that the patient at once be given a large dose of vitamin C, or ascorbic acid, by mouth. This is followed immediately by spraying into the nose and throat of a solution of a substance called sodium

This spraying is repeated every three hours for three or four treatments. The next day a further dose of the vitamin

C is given and the spraying of the nose is carried out once or twice. As a general rule, this suffices.

Of course, treatment of this type must be given under a doctor's care. There are some objections to the repeated use of sulfonamide preparation such as the one mentioned. These are that the lining membranes may become sensitized or over-sensitive to the preparation, and that germs may become resistant to the action of the sulfonamide preparations.

However, Dr. Haler reports that he has treated several hundred patients in the last year with neither of these

While the symptoms I describe are the common or unusual ones, they may vary to a great degree in different patients. Each patient often learns to recognize the symptoms which indicate the oncoming of a cold.

Persons who suffer frequently from colds may find the method of prevention as described above worthwhile.

Orchard Lane Picked Name of New Street On Smithson Plot

Boyertown's got a new street and it's picturequely called "Orchard Lane."

The street will cut through the Smithson tract of 1400, which was recently added to the borough. Grading of the lane has been completed along a 400-foot section, while it has been cleared its entire distance of one-half mile. The road turns off West Philadelphia Avenue and parallels Route 73, then turns left, goes up along the crest of the hill on the Smithson property, heading toward south Reading Avenue.

Second street extension also has started. The work is under the supervision of Walter E. Spotts, a Reading surveyor.

These will form the lines for the 12 tracts that will be available for residences, each with ample frontage and all having both water service and sewer connection.

Together with Highland street in the east end of the borough, the Orchard lane development represents Boyertown's present expansionist movement.

Frame Building Razed by Blaze

Fire believed to have been caused by a kerosene stove completely destroyed a two-room frame building occupied by migratory laborers yesterday afternoon on the Wilcox tomato farm, Poplar Rest, Boyertown RD 2.

Prompt action on the part of local fire companies averted a larger conflagration when they confined flames to the one building, about 20 feet square. Damage was estimated at $500. About ten other buildings of similar design are located in the area and they, too, are occupied by transient workers who are helping harvest the tomato crop. No one was injured. It is believed that no one was in the destroyed building yesterday at the time of the fire.

The Friendship Hook and Ladder company, Boyertown, responded with its crash truck and an engine, while Keystone Fire company sent two engines. Boyertown Community ambulance was also there.

PNG Summer Camp Comes to a Close; Termed a Success

INDIANTOWN GAP, Aug. 22 (AP)—Six thousand officers and men of the Pennsylvania National Guard ended their first postwar encampment today and entrained for their homes praised by top commanders for their work during the 15-day Summer training.

Special trains pulled out tonight carrying western and northwestern units. Eastern and Central Pennsylvania units will depart tomorrow morning.

"I was very much impressed by the training and behavior of the troops," commented Brig. Gen. Charles G. Curtis, commander of the encampment after a review of all units. "The deficiencies were of a minor nature. I am sure the PNG next year will be back in full swing to re-establish the historic position and in great numbers."

Brig. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler, commanding the 28th Infantry division, said he was convinced that civilian life was well on its way to becoming one of America's outstanding infantry divisions and will be among one of the first ready to take the field.

State Adjutant General Frank A. Weber, who has participated in seven national and state encampments said "none of them functioned more smoothly and militarily than this first post war encampment."

Col. Leo T. McMahon, of the regular Army, senior instructor for the guard pointed out that 1,500 of the troops were recruits and added that "the successful results obtained in training greatly exceeded our expectations."

Pension Fight Threatens New York City Bus Line

NEW YORK, Aug. 22 (AP)—Possibility of a tie-up of the city's bus lines loomed today as most of the drivers on one line sanctioned strike action "not later than" Monday, Sept. 8 as a dispute involving lifetime pensions.

At the same time, Michael J. Quill, president of the Transport Workers Union (CIO), representing the bus drivers, said that "busway workers are not too well satisfied either with things the way they are."

In 1930, only 27 percent of the U. S. population was over 65. By 1945, it was 12 percent.

Drought Harms Crops In U. S. German Zone

BERLIN, Aug. 22 (AP)—Germany's drought, in addition to damaging crops seriously, is curtailing hydroelectric power production and inland water transport at a time of critical need, American military government engineers said today.

In the U. S. occupation zone, the Danube river was reported at its lowest level in a century and no Danube barges have been loaded for three days. Danube hydroelectric power production has been reduced 50 percent. AMG engineers said.

Traffic virtually halted on the Oder and Western rivers. Low water in the Rhine has forced reduction in barge loads.

Nearly 4000 individual operations are required in manufacturing the parts of one watch.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 22 (AP)—A weather-beaten house, believed to be about 110 years old, has been sold for $12,000, realtor E. M. Boerke, who handled the transaction said today.

Boerke said attic refuse being sorted by one of the two families occupying the dwelling, was found to contain a partially-destroyed land grant of the property made by the United States government in March, 1848, and signed by President James K. Polk.

He said he believed the house was built some 10 years earlier, with the land grant issued in 1848 the year Wisconsin was raised from territory status to statehood.

Walking on a Wall

The little boy in the picture is practicing one of the earliest and most essential arts of life—the art of balance.

His real problem is to keep the weight of his body evenly distributed so that the line of gravity passes through his feet. It is the first lesson a child or young animal must learn in assuming an upright position.

Children derive much pleasure and satisfaction from their ability to walk a wall or narrow curb or rail fence. It gives them a sense of accomplishment when they are able to perform these feats without falling.

Balance is important not only in physical posture and movement, but in all the relations of life. It is especially important for children, as well as older people, to learn to keep their balance, mentally, morally and spiritually.

The life without religion is an unbalanced life. Man needs religion and the consciousness of God to keep him from falling under the weight of temporal cares.

The Church provides religious instruction and spiritual inspiration for all who seek its ministrations.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

The Church is the greatest factor in good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should consider service regularly and on his own scale. (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs the moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

At least three children were among those hurt.

Police Chief Alonzo Hixenbaugh identified the driver of the car as Mrs. Albert A. Frey, 55, of St. Clairsville, O.

Mrs. Frey told newsmen she became frightened when she saw a street car bearing down on her. She said she cut the wheels sharply. But a curb, bounded into the safety zone and continued across the street, until she crashed into the opposite curb.

Walking on a Wall

The little boy in the picture is practicing one of the earliest and most essential arts of life—the art of balance.

His real problem is to keep the weight of his body evenly distributed so that the line of gravity passes through his feet. It is the first lesson a child or young animal must learn in assuming an upright position.

Children derive much pleasure and satisfaction from their ability to walk a wall or narrow curb or rail fence. It gives them a sense of accomplishment when they are able to perform these feats without falling.

Balance is important not only in physical posture and movement, but in all the relations of life. It is especially important for children, as well as older people, to learn to keep their balance, mentally, morally and spiritually.

The life without religion is an unbalanced life. Man needs religion and the consciousness of God to keep him from falling under the weight of temporal cares.

The Church provides religious instruction and spiritual inspiration for all who seek its ministrations.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

The Church is the greatest factor in good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should consider service regularly and on his own scale. (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs the moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

Car in Safety Zone Injures 15 Persons

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 22 (AP)—Fifteen persons were injured, at least seven of them seriously, when an automobile crashed into a safety street car zone crowded with afternoon workers and shoppers here today.

At least three children were among those hurt.

War Crimes Prosecutor Hits Judges in Japan

OMAHA, Aug. 22 (AP)—Jay P. Gibbs, Omaha attorney who resigned recently as a war crimes prosecutor in Japan, said today hundreds of thousands of dollars are being wasted by confusion, incompetence and deliberate slow-downs in the war crimes trials.

"Seventy-five percent of the lawyers have never prepared a case," Gibbs told reporters. "Most of them are former OPA lawyers from Washington, where they had been on government payrolls for years."

"There's no question that some of them deliberately slowed down their work to prolong their $7,500 to $8,300 a year jobs, when they couldn't make a $100 a month in private practice," Gibbs said.

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 22 (AP)—Fred W. Silka, World War II veteran, rummaged through a stack of surplus Army trousers offered for sale in an East Main street store.

"Hey, look at this serial number," he exclaimed. "These are my old Army pants."

Skeptical but ready to please, A. L. Davidson, the proprietor, said, "Show me if they're your pants, they're a gift."

Silka produced a miniature photographic copy of his discharge certificate showing his Army serial number as 33,856,618. Stenciled in the waistband was "S-6618," the Army's abbreviated style for marking a soldier's issued clothing.

See and Hear in Person the most sensational act that was at this Park this year. This act is the choice of the major portion of the 12,000 people that saw them on their three previous engagements. Demanding we get them back again if we could. We are glad to state they canceled another date to be with their many friends here at Pheasant Land Park, in a brand new type of show and different in many details from what they did here before.

BINKIE DEE and COMPANY
This act is entirely different from anything that has played Parks in the past eleven years because it has such a reserve of material. These three boys must be seen to be appreciated as their whole show consists of several different acts.

1. Musical playing all the top hit tunes of the day in solid instrumental style. With imitations that are identical of such great band stars as Harry James, Clyde McCoy and Henry Busby by Binkie Dee himself. Duke Norman's Piano renditions styled the same as he did when he played in the late Jimmie Lunceford's band. With Johnny Jones giving out with drumming technique in a style all his own even to throwing the sticks away and using his fingers.
2. They do a novelty act that is without a doubt a whole show in itself. Here you see why they call Johnny, The Craziest Drummer in Show Business.
3. They do a burlesque of comedy of comedy-skits that keeps you in suspense as nobody actually knows what is going to happen next. These boys make a mind reader out of Duke to give the act European touch. And Johnny goes into a Gypsy Rose Lee routine that is a riot. And poor Binkie takes more punishment for a straight man than the wildest animal in Ringling Bros. Circus.

They do vaudeville bits, audience participation and so many other types of entertaining that it takes almost a full hour for them to run off their show. Now when you understand that the average act only works 10-15 or 20 minutes at the most, you can really appreciate why people talk so much about these boys.

Vacationing With Mercury Readers

By The VACATION EDITOR
Of The Mercury Staff

It's pretty darn easy to tell when some people have just returned from vacation. They look as though they've been pushed through a knothole or a washing machine winger. The bass under their eyes belie their original intentions to go away for a rest. That is, if they had any such original intentions. The "rest" angle is probably typical of the older folks, but the younger ones have a roomier, tauter, good time on their minds and the result is, inevitably, physical exhaustion.

These weary Willies actually get two weeks' vacation for one. They go to a resort for seven days, come back, then require seven more to regain their health. In that recuperation period, it's difficult to say which is suffering most... the vacationists, or the job to which they have returned.

If you see any of these resort-manufactured scarecrows, don't talk to them. The sound waves of your voice might hasten their collapse. There's nothing you can do but pass them by in silent pity.

Bill and Dick Sands and their mother of 649 Walnut street, "are renewing old acquaintances and enjoying new ones" at Ocean City.

PLAYGROUNDS —

next season is the appropriation of more funds for the employment of more leaders. If each playground could have one additional leader, we could keep the centers open in the evenings. This summer only the playground at Manawary park was open during the twilight hours, the others being closed down at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. It would be another step toward keeping the youngsters out of mischief.

Also playing a big part in the summer's program has been Edward Good, conductor of a baseball school every weekday morning at the Junior High building for boys over 12. In the adult section of the recreation commission, Eugene Kauler was credited with doing a bang-up job as director of the Industrial Baseball League.

Attendance records kept by Donnon showed that out of 1094 registrations for all six playgrounds, an average of 663 children attended the centers daily during the month of July.

Broken down among the respective areas, attendance was as follows: Jefferson, 130; Lincoln, 135; Rupert, 183; Tot Lot, 115; St. Clair, 169; Manawary park, 260; Baseball school, 102.

Members of the commission include Dr. Gustave A. Weber, chairman, Leonard A. Hillman, secretary and treasurer, I. Leroy Johnson, Leonard Hatfield, and J. Max Creswell.

Winning the admiration of Donnon and the borough as a whole, are the following leaders of the six playgrounds: Lincoln — Mary Lou Purnell, supervisor, and Dorothy Purnell, assistant; Manawary park — Esther Morrison, supervisor, Helen Gable, assistant, and Henry Stofko, director of evening programs; St. Clair, South and Charlotte streets — Robert Scheffer, supervisor, and Phyllis Bertollet, assistant; Jefferson, Beech and Warren — Joan Von Drach, supervisor, and Mrs. Mabel Kjelman, assistant; Rupert, South and Mr. Vernon Streets — Janet Lorraine Hunter, supervisor, and June Rapine, assistant; American Legion Tot Lot, vicinity of Chestnut and Franklin streets — Mrs. Elsie Boyer, supervisor, and Dorothy Nagle, assistant.

YOUR EYES

Dr. H. C. Baumann

This column is written by Dr. H. C. Baumann, Optometrist, a competent authority on matters pertaining to eyesight.

A common remark heard in reference to the eyes is—"My eyes are good. I have 20-20 vision." Although visual acuity is an important part of visual efficiency, it represents merely one aspect of visual efficiency.

Some people have 20-20 vision (normal distant vision) but cannot maintain it comfortably for any period of time. Thus visual comfort is an important consideration.

Other people, especially those past forty, may have normal distant vision but cannot see clearly at near.

Other factors lowering our visual efficiency are color blindness, restricted field of vision, inability to see at night, and muscular imbalance of the two eyes.

Thus it is a fallacy to assume that our eyes are operating at peak efficiency simply because our vision is good. Only a thorough eye examination can determine the state of visual efficiency and indicate methods for its improvement.

If you have any questions concerning your eyes, address Dr. Baumann at 215 High Street, Pottstown, and your query will be answered through this column or by direct mail.

Youth Hit by Car
Leaves Hospital

Marcus Printz, 9-year-old son of Abraham Printz, 448 Apple street, was discharged from the Memorial hospital last night after he had been hospitalized for injuries incurred when he was struck by a car on High street west of Franklin Thursday afternoon.

The boy suffered a gash on the right side of his neck, which required 12 sutures to close, and X-rays were taken when he complained of pains in the chest. The photographs revealed no internal injuries, hospital authorities said.

Police Chief James A. Laughhead said that no charges would be preferred against Ernest L. Musselman, 925 Main street, Pottstown, the driver, since Marcus walked into his vehicle, striking his head and neck against the right rear door.

Motor Patrolman Harold E. Hahn investigated the accident.

curity for which millions there are yearning."

He branded the council's efforts a dismal failure and bitterly charged:

"Never was there such killing on the part of the republican troops and bands since your cease-fire order. It is a strange and dreadful paradox that your cease-fire order has had an effect diametrically opposed to your humane intentions."

Debate on the Indonesian case was resumed this afternoon after a brief hearing of the Egyptian case against Britain over troops in Egypt and the future of the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan.

The Egyptian debate was interrupted twice by individual Egyptian speakers here a few hours after riots broke out in Cairo over the trend of Security council sentiments in the Egyptian case. Both uninvited speakers were ejected from the Security council chamber by uniformed U. N. guards after they had shouted imprecations from the gallery in the first major breach of the council's decorum.

The council heard speeches by Egyptian Premier Nokrashy Pasha and British delegate Sir Alexander Cadogan on the Egyptian case and then turned back to the Indonesian conflict. The Egyptian debate will be resumed Tuesday.

Van Kleffens spoke as the council resumed its consideration of several proposed solutions after behind-the-scenes efforts had failed to reach a compromise. "There is nothing more the council can usefully do," the Dutch ambassador said.

He told the council it had failed to bring peace in the Indonesian fighting "because you did not realize what this Republican government is really like."

Members of the club will meet with the scouts of Searles Memorial Methodist Church and the boys of the Optimist's camera club at Gaugler's service station, King and Manawary streets, at 8:45 o'clock this morning. From there, the trucks will leave to cover their respective sections of the borough.

If any bottles are missed by the trucks when they make their rounds, contributors are asked to call Pottstown 3199 where members of the Opti-Mrs. club will be on hand to dispatch a truck to pick up the bottles.

The club wants bottles and jars of all sizes, made either of glass or of crockery. Arrangements have been made to sell the bottles to bottling firms, to collect deposits on any deposit bottles, and to sell the remainder in bulk.

Harry M. Heck, Kauffman road, was high bidder for glass to be sold in bulk, according to Perkins last night.

The club plans to use the money it receives from the results of the drive for its boys' work program.

ment lease on the business facilities of the community to Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc., a Co-op.

The mayor said the Greenbelt town council voted 4-1 the past Fall for introduction of private business "to furnish competition to private monopoly."

Bauer testified as the House small business subcommittee on Co-ops opened its public hearings on the question whether the government is promoting non-profit "Co-op monopolies" to the exclusion of private enterprise.

Dillon S. Myer, commissioner of Federal public housing, vigorously protested the use of the word "monopoly" in reference to the Greenbelt arrangement.

He conceded the Co-op has the exclusive right to operate businesses in a half-mile radius within the public housing project, but said the leases granted by the government to the Co-op are no different from exclusive arrangements granted to various businesses within housing projects developed with private capital.

der announced the completion of the current phase of the conferences, saying that the British group and the United States national advisory council had "explored" problems arising from the foreign trade programs of the United Kingdom government.

He added that "it was concluded that further consideration should be given to all aspects of these problems by the joint technical working committees."

Snyder's announcement came after a final meeting of the British with the advisory council, which lasted less than an hour.

He said the continuing technical discussions will be only a part of a series of consultations between the two governments with the expectation "that high-level discussions will be resumed at an appropriate time."

Presumably, it will come in September when Snyder goes to London to participate in a meeting of the board of governors of the international bank.

Under the terms of the $3,750,000 British loan, Britain is prohibited from decreasing her purchases from the United States in order to buy elsewhere. She sought during the talks now ended to obtain modification of this arrangement in order to save her scant dollars by purchasing minimum needs in areas where she can pay for them with pounds.

So far as the record showed, that question was left unsolved.

For close to an hour prior to the advisory council meeting, Sir Wilfred was closeted with Undersecretary of State Robert Lovett, discussing not only the present British dollar shortage but also long range British-American economic affairs.

He declined to discuss details with reporters. He said, however, that he expected to go home Sunday and in reply to a question called progress "satisfactory."

morning of Tuesday, Aug. 5, and attempted to crack open a safe.

The defendant then left the building, stole the parked automobile of Albert P. Foroni, of Hilldale, and abandoned it on Warren street.

Mitchell said he is a native of New Jersey, but went to Pottstown after his discharge from the Navy. He worked in a foundry for awhile but was released because he was not big enough for the work, he testified. He said he collected approximately 40 of the $20 weekly checks allotted under the Service-men's Readjustment program.

Judge Dannerhower committed Mitchell to the Pennsylvania Industrial School at White Hall for an indeterminate period.
